It's BABY SEASON

Every Spring through Fall, Walden's Puddle is showered with sick, injured, and orphaned wild animals in desperate need of care.

Walden's Puddle steps in as a wild mama to thousands of orphaned wildlife babies. From tiny birds to fox kits, we care for these critters, equipping them with the skills to thrive in their natural habitat. With rising costs, other rehab facilities closing, and more development moving into Middle Tennessee, we need your help more than ever. To operate we rely on your donations. Help us meet our goal of an additional 200 households giving a $25 monthly gift. Will you step up and Give Wildlife a Second Chance? Any amount helps, but an extra $5,000 a month will allow WP to keep professional staff, keep nutrient rich foods to nourish the animals, and make sure our staff and volunteers have the tools they need to rehabilitate and release these wildones back into nature, where they belong. If you already are one of our monthly heros, please consider increasing your monthly gift or adding one time gifts as you can.

Imagine the diapers, the formula, the clothes, the toys, and all the love a human baby needs. Our critter babies need your love and support, especially without their own mom. Just as you cherish the love and care you received from your mother, we ask you to remember the wild babies of Greater Nashville that need your help. Without you, the healing and care these animals desperately need would not be possible. Each day, our team works tirelessly to ensure that orphaned and injured wildlife are nurtured, rehabilitated, and returned to their natural homes. Walden's Puddle receives no state or federal funding and 97% of your gift goes directly to the care of the animals.

Your generous donation today directly impacts these animals and enables us to carry out this crucial work. We are incredibly grateful for your past support, and we pray that you'll continue to stand by us as we give wildlife a second chance. God bless us all!
